It was only single passage (and not return passage) that was contemplated in that connection and those passages appear to have been intended ~~to be given~~ on expiry of his term here & for his return home.

It is for consideration if that clause is to be ~~deemed to have any application~~ as the period of his contract was extended. Further no passage for the daughter was contemplated in that contract.

In any case, only single passages in one direction were provided for and no return passages. ~~as above~~.

The journeys iii & iv were also not done within 6 months after expiry of the first term

He now claims that in addition to those already availed of he can have the following:—

(i) Return First class for his wife to & from England ~~for the~~ — incurred in 1936 - for which a bill has been sent up now.

(ii) Return First class passages for himself to & from America

(iii) Return passages for his wife & daughter between England & America

(iv) His Robinson's passage from England to India.

Bills are proposed to be sent shortly.

How far these are admissible, has to be decided

(For the second term, passages for Dr. R, his wife & daughter to go to America & return - are provided)

Passages actually availed of

(1) One Return I class India - ~~England~~ England for Mrs. Robinson. Oct. 32

(2) One Single forward passage to England for Miss Robinson Oct. 32

(3) One Return passage India - Eng. for Dr. R. April 33

(4) Two Return passages for Dr. R & his wife from England to America & back to Eng.

The net effect of all the above seems to be equivalent to Two Return passage for Dr. R. & his wife from India - America (via England) and back + ~~[illegible]~~ + Miss Robinson's passage to England.

Passages due

(2) For Dr. Robinson : India – England – America and back by same route

(3) For Mrs Robinson : Same.

7 Against the same, a bill for Mrs. Robinson's return passage from India to England & back (incurred in May 26th) has been now received for adjustment. He has also said he would be sending further claims for (1) Return passage from India to America & back. –

22 Under Rule 12 of the Service agreement executed by Dr. Robinson dated 23-2-1929, he is entitled to one first class passage for himself and one for his wife from India to America if on the expiry of the term here or within six months thereafter, they actually make the journey. This was apparently intended for the return journey when he finally quits service. No passage is provided in this agreement for Miss Robinson. His services were extended for a further period of 5 years from 15-8-32 in G.O.No.619-23/C.B.112-31-4 dated 17-8-32 One first class passage for Mrs.Robinson from India to England and back claimed in October 1932 was admissible and passed as the journey was actually made.

23 One return First Class passage from India to - England for Dr. Robinson was allowed in April 1933 and two return passages first class for Dr.Robinson and his wife from England to America and back to England were also admitted in August 1933. These will have to be counted against the Second term i.e., 15-8-32 to 15-8-37 and not against First Term as observed by Dr.Robinson

Dear Doctor Robinson

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter dated 23rd May 1937 regarding your claim for refund of the expenditure incurred by you in 1936 on account of ~~your wife's~~ Mrs Robinson's passage to and from England, I am desired to state that the conditions relating to your first term of five years 1927-32 (August 1927 to 1932) provided for payment of one first class passage for yourself and one for ~~your wife~~ her from India to America if on the expiry of your term here or within six months thereafter, the journeys were actually made. This clause, which contemplates no return passages, was intended and would be available for the journey home at the time of your leaving the service.

It is only in the contract for the second term that allowance has been made to give first class return passages for yourself, your wife and also for your daughter from India to America and back. The passages already paid to you in 1932 and 1933 (as detailed in my letter dated 20th May 1937) exhaust the fares admissible on this account on behalf of your wife and yourself. For your daughter one fare from England to America and back to India is claimable.

In the circumstances explained above, I am to say that Government regret that the refund of the passage charges paid by you last year on behalf of your wife is not admissible.

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. J.F. Robinson, B.A., M.D., F.A.C.S., F.R.C.S., (Edin.)

This clause, which ~~provided only for single~~ contemplates no return passages, ~~for you and your wife was~~ was apparently intended ~~to apply to~~ the journey home at the time of your finally quitting, service ~~and does not come into operation till the end of~~ leaving the ~~service~~. ~~No return passages for any one was provided for in that contract~~.

It is only in the contract for the second term that allowance has been made to give ~~you~~ first class return passages for yourself, your wife and also your daughter from India to America and back. Dear Mr. Venkatesa Iyengar:

The communication regarding my leaves and passages reached me just before I left Mysore. In a conversation with Sir Mirza & Mr. Madhava Rao, I understood that it was agreed that I am to receive a passage to America for myself, my wife and daughter at the termination of my extension of service. The note does not mention this, but I presume this will be arranged. Would you kindly confirm this. Communications addressed to Messrs. Thos. Cook & Son, London, will reach me

Yours sincerely,
